Dean's Column

November is a time for Thanksgiving. It is a time for socializing with family, friends and colleagues, and taking stock of the blessings that we have received during this past year. It is a time for thanking those who, one way or another, large and small, have assisted us as we go about our daily lives.

Once again the list of committees has been updated. It continues to be a work in progress. Take a look to see who has been generous in making a commitment of time and energy for the benefit of all our members. Thanks to all of them.

Besides the day-to-day and year-to-year work, TCAGO during its one hundred years has hosted three regional conventions and three national conventions. All of those events enriched our lives and supported our work. To all those who worked so hard to make TCAGO what it is today, Thanks.

Thank you to those of you who have already donated to the '$100 for 100 Years' campaign. There is still plenty of time for those who have not yet contributed to do so.

TCAGO is a volunteer organization. Behind the scenes, many members volunteer their services, yet they are not always recognized. We owe them all a debt of gratitude.

There are many events available this month, the continuation of PipingHot, the Members' Recital, and the official date of TCAGO's birth, November 23, 1910. Support our organization by attending as many events as you can. Your life and music making will be enriched.

What is on your mind? Contact me or any of the board members with your ideas. Letters to the editor of Pipenotes are always welcome. Take a look at the website www.tcago.org. You will be amazed by the amount of information it contains.

Excerpts from the TCAGO Oral History Project

by Laura Edman

The TCAGO Oral History Project interviews of Philip Brunelle, Kathryn Moen and Bob Wolf discuss their careers, the benefits of AGO membership and their musical influences and experiences.

Brunelle talks extensively about the AGO, including conventions, membership, challenges and people. Asked what he has gained from the TCAGO, he says, "I see this chapter as being a real leader and a catalyst for quality and music and for preserving a tradition. Being able to be a part of that march of history, to me, has filled me with a lot of pride for what we have been able to do." Philip also discusses the importance of mentorship: "...in the same way that Ted Bergman and Harry Opel and Arthur Jennings were mentors to me in a very deep and satisfying way, I've been always concerned that if I see young people that I feel could use some mentorship, I try to find a way to make that happen."

Moen takes you on a whirlwind tour of her life beginning with piano lessons in South Dakota. Whether talking about playing for Jean Langlais at Ste. Clothilde, studying with Marchal in Paris, studying in Norway on a Fulbright, or telling the story of her very first salary as an organist, Kathryn's experiences inspire and entertain. An enthusiastic supporter of Guild events and performers, Kathryn says, "I learn so much from all these AGO people that present programs. I learn programming – the variety of literature, and what not to do, as well as what to do, and what to include."

Wolf's interview takes you back in time. Bob discusses people who were important to the operation of the chapter when he was active and names many great performers who came to the Twin Cities. Regarding the AGO, he says, "One of the great benefits to me has been the technical knowledge that has been published in the AGO magazine...both playing – performance skills – and...the wonderfully complete descriptions of organs – the technical aspects of the instrument." Bob completes his interview: "I can only say that I have consistently enjoyed my association with the Guild. There have been musical riches that have come to me that I'm sure would have not come any other way." 🎵

“Minnesota AGO Through the Decades” 1910–1930

If you came to our opening meeting on September 19, you heard me talk about our early days and the following three decades. The information is taken from the secretary's minutes of meetings. Here is my presentation again but with more detail and in written form.

In future Pipenotes issues, I'll continue with highlights from our history through the decades.

1910s

- From the minutes of the first meeting: Twin Cities to be the center of Minnesota AGO Chapter meetings held alternately in St. Paul and Minneapolis at some hotel or café, i.e., business meeting followed by supper and discussion.
- Encouragement and discussion on AAGO and FAGO examinations.
- Focus on organ recitals and public services.
 - Seven recitals given in 1915–16 under the auspices of the Guild
 - Edwin Arthur Kraft, municipal organist from Atlanta, Georgia played in Mar., 1915
 - Palmer Christian from Chicago, Illinois (later U. of Mich.) played in Apr., 1916
 - Pietro Yon from New York City (St. Patrick's Cath.) played in Dec., 1919
- Addresses and lectures were often followed by discussion: Stuart MacLean, Minneapolis Journal music editor, read a paper on “Some Neglected Church

Composers" on Feb. 11, 1911; Rabbi Isaac Rypine, Mt. Zion Temple, addressed "Traditional Hebrew Music" on Nov. 24, 1911; Rev. Shaad, St. John the Evangelist, addressed "Religion in Music" on Mar. 28, 1912; William R. Dorr, Aeolian Pipe Organs, spoke on the "Construction of Modern Organs" on Mar. 29, 1916

- The Nov. 3, 1913 membership totaled 42. The number of members in the 1915–16 Annual Report totals 44.
- There was discussion at the Mar. 26, 1918 meeting about dispensing with the dinner that usually follows the business meeting.
- The Oct. 28, 1919 minutes showed an annual dues increase from $3.00 to $4.00.

1920s

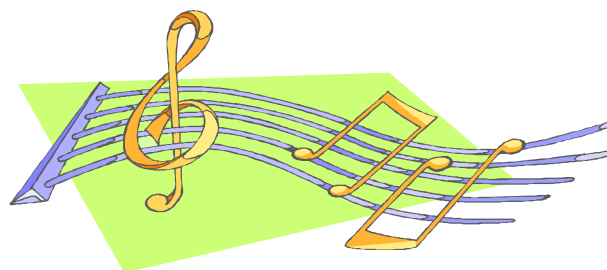

- Treasurer's report balance on Jan. 27, 1920: $123.26
- The Jan. 27, 1920 minutes noted discussion of a questionnaire to be sent to all the churches in the state requesting duties and salaries of their organists. The size of the church should be noted. "The financial state needs improvement."
- From AGO National in the May 31, 1921 minutes: "The compensation of a great proportion of organists is pitifully inadequate..."
- Apr. 19, 1926 minutes: "Steps should be taken to agitate for higher salaries."
- The minutes from Nov. 1922 discussed a proposal to make two sub-chapters; St. Paul–Minneapolis.
- The Sept. 24, 1925 dinner meeting at Dayton Ave. Presbyterian Church was followed by a recital. James R. Gillette played the new Casavant Organ.
- The April 4, 1927 meeting was the first and only meeting of the AGO. Members heard the new Kimball Organ installed at Westminster Presbyterian Church.

1930s

- The first meeting of the 1930–31 season was held on October 28, 1930 at Lake of the Isles church in Minneapolis. Forty-four members and guests attended the dinner meeting and heard a talk by Donald Ferguson, "Musical Impressions in Europe" followed by a recital given by Virginia Wetherbee Powell and Marion Austin Dunn.

Participating in the musical vesper service in the sanctuary was Marion Hutchinson, F. A. G. O., organist of Central Lutheran and the choir directed by B. R. Biorn. In memory of the passing of J. Victor Bergquist, former organist at Central Lutheran, 1922–29, and our former Dean, 1918–1920, Miss Hutchinson played the slow movement from his Third Organ Sonata.
- On Nov. 25, 1935, our AGO Chapter celebrated its 25th anniversary at St. John the Evangelist church. In spite of bad weather, 41 members and guests were present. A turkey dinner was served followed by a program in the sanctuary given by George Fairclough. Thirty-five names are listed in the minutes eight of which are listed as former and present "Dean."
